

The musicians come from Cuba, Brazil, Spain and Switzerland. Having been together for more than ten years, they form the nearly world-wide touring "Septeto Internacional" playing Latin-American Jazz. Head of the septet is Swiss pianist Michael Fleiner. Today 48, he went through several bands, Latin-Jazz being something like a constant. Playing his own compositions with "Septeto Internacional" Fleiner succeeds in transferring the complexity of rhythmic and harmonies into a lightness of experience. "Cómo me gusta el 7" [How I like 7], as Fleiner calls this album, is recorded with extremely experienced musicians demonstrating class by the formation's live-recording. oc
